AFFIDAVIT OF MARIA CONTE

MARIA CONTE, being sworn states:

I am the Controller of Brae Burn Country Club, Inc. ("Defendant" or "Club"). I make this affidavit in support of the Club's motion to dismiss the instant lawsuit against Defendant because the only plaintiff Demetrius Wright ("Plaintiff") received a Federal Rule 68 Offer of Judgment for an amount exceeding any recovery he could receive on his claims.

Plaintiff's Claim

 I have been informed that Plaintiff's suit contends that for the purposes of computing overtime compensation, his regular rate of pay should be increased by an amount reflecting the cost or other value of his lodging in a dormitory on Defendant's premises and the meals he received while working at the Club.

Plaintiff's Employment History

3. Plaintiff worked at the Club as a laundry room attendant from April 27, 2006 through April 22, 2007. The only times he worked over 40 hours in a work week were during 2006. Each week from the week ending May 14, 2006 through the week ending October 27, 2006, Plaintiff worked in excess of 40 hours. He also worked one additional hour beyond 40 during the week ending November 5, 2006. He did not work over 40 hours in any other week during his entire employment at the Club. Attached as Exhibit A are records indicating the hours Plaintiff worked while employed by Defendant.

- During the weeks in which he worked overtime, Plaintiff was compensated at the rate of $9.00 per hour for all hours worked up to 40 in each work week, and at the rate of $13,50 per hour for all hours worked in excess of 40 in each work week,
- In this lawsuit, Plaintiff claims that he should receive an additional amount 5. of overtime compensation based upon adding the cost of meals and lodging to his regular rate each week.
- 6. Under Plaintiff's theory, in order to calculate the amount he claims to be owed, Plaintiff's regular hourly rate would be increased by the cost or value of the dormitory facility he used plus the cost or value of the meals he ate while working at the Club divided each week by the number of hours he worked. Since he was already compensated for all hours worked (including time and one half for overtime hours at his $9.00 per hour regular rate) if he is correct, Plaintiff would only be entitled to one-half of the additional amount added to his regular rate multiplied by the number of overtime hours he worked during that week.

The Cost or Value of the Meals

Staff and independent contractors working at the Club were provided with 7. a communal meal prepared for the staff. It was not an a la carte meal from the Club's regular menu. Normally, the meal would be assembled in the kitchen from items that were left over from the previous meal's service or occasionally, would be simple and inexpensive meals like cold cuts and bread with cole slaw and perhaps salad if that was available. The staff had no choice; they were only offered the food that was prepared for the staff. It is estimated that the costs of such meal did not exceed $2.45 per person; in fact, our chef estimates that each meal is worth approximately $1.50.

Document 26-5

The Cost or Value of the Lodging

- The lodging was provided in a separate building which in 2006 and 2007 lodged 24 employees in 12 rooms. Each room could only accommodate bunk beds. Six of the rooms were only 9 feet 6 inches deep by 8 feet two inches wide. Five other rooms were only 9 feet 6 inches deep by 12 feet 61/2 inches wide, and one handicap accessible room measured 9 feet 6 inches deep and 14 feet 111/4 inches wide.
- 9. None of the 12 rooms in the dormitory had private washing or bathroom facilities. Instead, there was one communal bathroom for the 24 employees and one handicapped accessible bathroom. There were no kitchen facilities in the dormitory.
- 10. When built, the cost of the domnitory building was $490,905. If the building was depreciated over 27 years, the weekly cost per employee would be $14.57 ($490,905 divided by 27 years divided by 24 places divided by 52 weeks) or $2.28 per day. If the building was depreciated over only 20 years, the weekly cost per employee would be $19.67 ($490,905 divided by 20 years divided by 24 places divided by 52 weeks) or $2.81 per day.
- 11. The average annual cost of operating the donnitory was $7,637 per year and the cost in 2006 (when Plaintiff worked overtime) was $9,185.46. If the average annual operating cost was $7,637, the per person weekly cost would be $6.12 ($7,637 divided by 24 places divided by 52 weeks) or eighty-seven ($.87) cents per day. If the annual cost for 2006 was used, the weekly cost would be $7.36 per week ($9,185.46 divided by 24 places divided by 52 weeks divided by 7 days) or $1.05 per day.

- The ranges of weekly costs for a bunk in the dormitory would therefore be from as little as $20.68 per week [$490,905 cost of the building divided by 27 years divided by 24 places divided by 52 weeks] plus ($7,637 operating cost divided by 24 places divided by 52 weeks) to $27.02 per week to ($490,905 cost of the building divided by 20 years divided by 24 places divided by 52 weeks) plus ($9,185.46 divided by 24 places divided by 52 weeks divided by 7 days).
- In each week where Plaintiff worked overtime hours he was paid his $9.00 13. per hour regular rate for the first 40 hours plus $13.50 per hour for all hours worked over 40. Plaintiff contends his regular rate each week should be increased due to the meals and lodging he received. The formula for the extra overtime compensation would be (the cost of the meals and lodging) divided by (the hours worked) multiplied by (.5) multiplied by (the number of overtime hours worked):

(SMeals + Lodging) x .5 x overtime hours (Hours worked)

For example, in the week ending August 27, 2007, Plaintiff worked 54 14. hours and consumed 7 meals at the Club. Thus, at $27.02 maximum per week lodging and $2.45 per meal ($17.15), he received meals and lodging costing an additional $42.15 for the 54 hours he worked or seventy-eight ($.78) cents per hour added to his $9.00 regular rate. Based on this, one-half of $.78 per hour would be thirty nine ($.39) cents per hour for his 14 hours of overtime would total an additional $5.46, that week. At the $20.68 minimum, Plaintiff would claim no more than an additional $4.90 for that week.

15. As another example for the week ended July 9, 2006, the calculation is as follows:

Plaintiff could claim a maximum of $12.55 -

Or a minimum of $11.05 -

- 16. Attached as Exhibit B is an analysis reflecting each and every week Plaintiff worked overtime using the maximum rates which totals $154,82 in additional compensation. Attached as Exhibit C is an analysis using the minimum rates which total $132.27.
- 17. Even if liquidated damages should be added to the amount payable to the Plaintiff, it is clear that the maximum liability based on costs plus liquidated damages would be no more than $310 and, therefore, the offer of judgment of $1,000 plus reasonable attorney's fees to the date of the offer far exceeds any amount which the Plaintiff could recover in this case.
- 18. The United States Department of Labor Wage and Hour Division has investigated this claim, and has calculated that the most Plaintiff might be owed is $119.10, an amount which Brae Burn has already agreed to pay.
- 19. I am informed that whether or not the Plaintiff accepts that judgment, the Plaintiff is removed from the case and as a result, the case should be dismissed as there is no proper representative of the putative members of the opt-in or opt-out class.

NY:2548480v1 - 5 -

20. The Club, accordingly, respectfully requests that the above-entitled action be dismissed with prejudice.

Can I get an offer with lunch valued at $8 and dinner at $12? Otherwise, my client will testify that he consumed steaks, chicken breasts and caviar. Also, let me get the lodging valued at $25/day. Thanks.

I would need to know the off teh clock hours they claim, including the dates they allege they worked off the clock and, of course what were your fees and costs. As you might surmise, my client does not think they did any off the clock work ( and indeed believe that on several occassions at least one of your clients disappeared from his post and was found off his workstation not working.) In addition, I am told only one of your clients received lodging so I am at a loss to understand how he could have been owedwhat you claim.

DEMETRIUS WRIGHT,
Plaintiff, on on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated,
A CONTRACT LINE CONTRACT

First Amended Complaint

Jury Trial Demanded

-against-

BRAE BURN COUNTRY C	LUB,	INC.

Defendant.

Plaintiff Demetrius Wright, by his attorney, David C. Wims, amends his Complaint as of right, and alleges, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated who opt into this action, as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

- 1. This is a challenge to Defendant's unlawful practices of paying its non-exempt employees for overtime at one and one-half (1.5) times their 'hourly rate', as opposed to their 'regular rate', as required by law; and failing to pay for all hours worked. For years, Defendant failed to include all remuneration for employment, such as the value of lodging and meals, in its overtime calculations, and received the benefit of "off the clock" work. In sum, Defendant - for years - simply has grossly underpaid Plaintiff and other similarly situated employees.
- Pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq. ("FLSA"), Plaintiff alleges that he is: (i) entitled to unpaid compensation for hours worked but unpaid, (ii) entitled to unpaid overtime wages from Defendant for his work beyond forty hours per week; and (iii) entitled to liquidated damages equal to his unpaid wages under the FLSA.

- 3. Pursuant to the New York Labor Law, Article 6 (unpaid hourly wages) and 19 (unpaid overtime wages), and implementing regulations, Plaintiff alleges that he is: (i) entitled to unpaid compensation for hours worked but unpaid, (ii) entitled to unpaid overtime wages from Defendant for his work beyond forty hours per week; (iii)entitled to call in pay and spread of hours pay; and, (iv) entitled to liquidated damages equal to twenty-five percent of his unpaid wages under the New York Labor Law.
- Pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), Plaintiff brings his FLSA claim as a collective action on behalf of himself and all other similarly situated employees of Defendant who elect to opt into this action.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiff's FLSA claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1337 and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's Labor Law and contract claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1367. In addition, this Court has jurisdiction over Plaintiff's FLSA claims pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216 (b).
- Venue is proper in the Southern District of New York pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(a), as the events giving rise to the claim occurred therein.

Mr. Panken,

As I'm sure you know, both "off the clock" and "regular rate" claims are cognizable under the FLSA. Further, FLSA claims may not be waived by a union in the collective bargaining context (they are waivable by way of individual arbitration clauses).

Additionally, the SD, in Moon, included meals in its calculation of the "regular rate" under both federal and state law. Thanks.

In view of the fact that there is no liability under New York State Law with respect to overtime rates and that there are no potential parties that can be added in view of the US Wage Hour decision on the issue, I am at a loss to understand how you calculate the $5,000 no less the $10,000 legal fees.

Please forward to me the details of any theory you may be espousing so I can understand your clients claims.

Plaintiffs' Employment

- 22. Throughout their tenures, Plaintiffs were full-time employees of Defendant Brac Burn subject to a collective bargaining agreement.
- 23. Throughout the Covered Period, Defendants scheduled Plaintiffs to work (barring vacation days, sick days, or other days off from his schedule) five, twelve-hour shifts per week, with additional hours and days as needed by Defendants.
- 24. Plaintiffs' work hours for Defendants frequently totaled more than ten hours per day and forty hours per week, sometimes spanning seven days and including split shifts and call-in work; and often included labor performed before punching in and after punching out, or not otherwise recorded or accounted for by Defendants.
- Each week, after submission of completed time cards by Plaintiffs, Defendants Vando, Conte and/or their designees would review Plaintiffs' time cards, and "edit" them in a scheme to defraud the Plaintiffs and other employees, inter alia.
- 26. The "editing" that occurred would substitute a 8:00 pm clock out for a 10:00 pm clock out, for example, always resulting in labor performed by Plaintiffs for which they were not paid.

- 27. The "editing" occurred almost every week throughout the periods of employment of Plaintiffs, and Defendants actually crossed out validly punched times of Plaintiffs to write in their own entries, and then based Plaintiffs' pay on the substituted values, thereby defrauding Plaintiffs of some of their rightfully earned wages.
- 28. Defendants¹ fraudulent scheme was made possible by virtue of the authority and positions of Defendants Vando and Conte at Defendant Brae Burn Country Club in its capacity as employer of Plaintiffs and others.
- 29. Defendants facilitated their scheme to defraud by use of the mails and wires in that the timecards and pay stubs of Plaintiffs were transmitted, executed, confirmed, sent and/or received by way of telephone calls, faxes and the mails.
- 30. Defendants never notified Plaintiffs that their time cards were being "edited," and concealed the same so that Plaintiffs would have no recourse.
- Upon information and belief, the proceeds of the scheme were retained by and beneficial to Defendant Brae Burn Country Club.
- 32. Defendants Vando and Conte were personally involved in the scheme to defraud and also delegated some of the acts to their subordinates.
- 33. As consideration for employment, Defendants paid Plaintiffs: a) cash wages, b) lodging with utility services, c) health insurance, d) two meals per day, and other forms of remuneration.
- 34. Plaintiffs' weekly wages from Defendants varied depending on the number of hours Defendants assigned them to work.

- 35. Defendants paid Plaintiffs overtime compensation the calculation of which did not include the value of the lodging, meals, utility services, etc., provided to Plaintiffs by Defendants.
- 36. Actual pay stubs and time cards issued by Defendants to Plaintiffs are attached to this complaint as Exhibit "A".

Collective Action Allegations

- 37. During the relevant time periods, Defendants employed other employees in the same and other job title(s) as Plaintiffs.
- 38. During the relevant time periods, Defendants subjected other employees than Plaintiffs to the same overtime pay policies outlined above.
- 39. Defendants subjected other employees than Plaintiffs to the same overtime pay policies outlined above even where those employees had different titles, responsibilities, shifts and work schedules than Plaintiffs.
- 40. Upon information and belief, Defendants continue to subject its employees to the same overtime pay policies it has applied to Plaintiffs, as outlined above.

Re: Demetrius Wright v. Brae Burn Country Club

Dear Mr. Wims:

I have reviewed your calculations of the time paid to Mr. Wright and Mr. Velez (although Velez is not yet a party to the suit). Your calculations are wrong since neither punched out for their meal periods or their one hour break during the day. When they worked during the time the communal meals were available for the staff who were working at those periods (11:00 AM – 12 Noon and 4:00 to 5:00 PM), they were given a full half-hour break. In addition, they were given a one hour break during the afternoons when they worked overtime which they did not punch out for.

As I told you, any claims for mistakes in pay were subject to arbitration under the collective bargaining agreement covering these two gentlemen. As to Mr. Wright, all of his claims were covered by the release he signed in exchange for $7500.

I have previously sent to you calculations for the values of the food and lodging for Wright which are far less than the Rule 68 offer we previously made. Mr. Velez's claim for meals only would be less than $20, again far less than we have offered.

As to the collective action claims, as I previously informed you, the United State Department of Labor Wage Hour Division has audited this claim and my client has drawn checks to everyone the Wage Hour Division indicated might be owed additional compensation, so there cannot be a possible FLSA collective action. As to the State claim, you were copied on an opinion letter from the appropriate state agency indicating that under New York State Law there is no requirement to include the cost or value of meals and lodging in the regular rate for purposes of calculating overtime compensation.

You have indicated that you will be seeking to once again amend your complaint which can only be done by motion and indicated that you would be seeking a pre-motion conference with our Judge. Please let me know what you intend to do, especially in view of the above facts. If you are allowed to amend your complaint once again, there would seem to be no warrant to answer or move against the first amended complaint.

Very truly yours

Under a rotation system, employees who do not accept an offer of overtime shall be placed at the bottom of the seniority list for purposes of being offered overtime.
- (b) In the event that an employee with seniority was not offered available overtime on the grounds that he was not qualified and it is later determined that he was qualified to do the overtime work offered, then his exclusive remedy shall be to be offered the next available overtime of the same type or other type for which he is also qualified.
- Section 34.5 An employee who is unable to perform his/her job because of his/her own serious health condition shall retain seniority for up to 12 weeks. The Club shall continue to make contributions to the Welfare Fund on behalf of such employee while on leave for his/her serious health condition up to a maximum of 16 weeks in a 12 month period provided the employee has worked 1250 hours in the last twelve (12) months before the leave and the Club was making contributions to the Welfare Fund on the employee's behalf immediately before taking his leave of absence. For the purpose of this Section 34.5 only, the definition of "serious health condition" shall be the same definition provided by the federal Family and Medical Leave Act.

ARTICLE 36 - ELECTRONIC EQUIPMENT

Section 36.1 Employees shall refrain from using cellphones or other electronic equipment while they are working at the club or in areas of the club to which members or guests have access except that cellphones may be used in cases of emergency.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

We will not consent to the addition of a thirteenth amendment cause of action, and indeed would consider it a frivolous and sanctionable act on your part in view of the cases which hold that persons who can leave their employment are not covered by the thirteenth amendment. I sincerely hope that you will cease your harassing tactics and inappropriate offers so that we will not have to bring your actions to the attention of the tribunal.

Mr. Panken,

As I'm sure you know, both "off the clock" and "regular rate" claims are cognizable under the FLSA. Further, FLSA claims may not be waived by a union in the collective bargaining context (they are waivable by way of individual arbitration clauses).

Additionally, the SD, in Moon, included meals in its calculation of the "regular rate" under both federal and state law. Thanks.

In view of the fact that there is no liability under New York State Law with respect to overtime rates and that there are no potential parties that can be added in view of the US Wage Hour decision on the issue, I am at a loss to understand how you calculate the $5,000 no less the $10,000 legal fees.

Please forward to me the details of any theory you may be espousing so I can understand your clients claims.
